

Dear Grandma

First and foremost you are the most beloved person in the whole world coming from me and everyone else. I want to apologize for not being the young man you raised meaning that you raised a smart intelligent, humble, loving grandson and took me in since birth, legal custody! You are my everything you're the most strongest person I know. I'm truly sorry for the negative events that's been going on in my life, my mind has been so in the gutter. Everyday I try not to think on purpose.

But when I think amazing things happen. Thank you for always forgiving me even if I'm wrong.

I just don't want to leave you for no amount of time. I'm sorry for getting so off track.

But God always steers the right way. I feel like I acted out without thinking period. I would never hurt you on purpose or accident.

I love you with all my heart, it's time to close this chapter in my life, I'm crying now writing this. I'm a great person.

I'm sorry I been treating people not right as to there emotions. I'm so tired of going through prison sense. I'm way above it. I'm an entrepreneur. When I come home from prison I promise I will Be the Great example of a Loving Father and Loving Grandson. Sometimes you have to hit rock bottom to understand and see.

I can except that when I come home you better be picking me up from release. I don't want to leave you Dr. FOX 35 or find but I have to, to be able to be a better person and to be able to see more to life.

I miss pops and I don't know what I would do without you. There's a lot of weight that I have supposed to be handling but my head so far gone now I done took your time for granted. I wish I could hug you right now and tell you I'm sorry and everything's gonna be alright. I have to do this time so I won't be distracted, I have to be clear minded so I can be at my greatest so I can take care of you. I truly appreciate you for raising my son to be the gentleman he is. Thank you

There things to give me more changes but hopefully it won't affect the 17 months that I now come to my senses is what I need to do and to be able to terminate the probation. Whatever happens God has my back and so does you.

Tell FOX 35 I Love Her and that they are giving me another exposure charge at a Walmart which they so called had a warrant since December. But to set on top of it I need her to talk to both courts that I'm on probation with to run the time concurrent with my sentence. Tell her to keep loving my son and spend time with him while I'm gone. Tell them to bond and love me and for them to help each other pass time but never forget me. Tell her I'm sorry and I don't believe the accusations that I was accusing her of was true. Tell her I need her to forgive me. ~~That~~ Tink is the only person that can and will make me act without acting to get to her because I love her. She is my wife. I would be FOX 35 up dead or in prison without her. She has nothing but the best intentions for me and as to you she is a great person. Grandma do not turn your back on her. Take her in immediately, she will help you and FOX 35 keep things in order. She will be in my life until death do us part please so set her immediately and call Cape together. She has kept me on track for 4 years now. Grandma she doesn't lie, her mom is a horrible person, all she does is take and still can't stay there. We are all family you will need each other while I'm gone. please help her. Because she has helped me more than you will ever know. Just like you're my angel she is my angel. Tell FOX 35 that his daddy was wrong. Tell him always respect his grandma.

Tell him I said I want him to be better than his daddy and since his but so smart I'm giving him a task that he is more than enough time to handle. Him and uncle FOX 35 needs to patch up that hole on boat with FiberGlass and he can paint whatever color he wants. Tell him I believe in him. If you don't know how to do something just ask and learn and ask and learn. Sincerely Grandma I love you. I'm be focused and able to fight off and quit my addictions. I'm doing this for pops, you, mum, FOX 35

Go pick FOX 35 up right now and both apologize to each other, now you can focus because you know I'm actually better in lock up to straighten my life before its too late. treat my wife like you treat me. I Love you forever and always
Sincerely
Shannon Allen

you make my car key with you make you look my car and my shed. Love you Sending my car key
Grandma I'm sure
